

Dear Partners and Friends!

On behalf of The Tunisian Export Promotion Center, It is our honor to thank the organizers, members and visitors of the 31st session of the international autumn food and drink exhibition World Food Moscow 2022 and wish them a great event.

World Food Moscow event still a very good and rare opportunity for operators in the agri-food sector, in all these sectors, to concretize the needs of each party. it is an opportunity for producers to exhibit their products and their knowledge and to win sales contracts, also for buyers, the show represents an opportunity to satisfy demand and know the offer and get good supplies.

And for this year, we are honored to announce that Tunisia will be presented in this event with the participation of 9 exhibitors representing various branches of the agro-industry and we have the honor to invite everyone to visit exhibition stands of the Tunisian companies, which are represented at the expo.

Finally, we hope that this show will always be a success and that all participants find what they are looking for and achieve their participation objectives. Also we wish the whole team of the organization a very good job and that they continue on the same path of glory and success.
